

CO-RESPONSIBILITY

KEY TO OVERCOME INEQUALITIES IN THE WORLD OF WORK

16 April at 13.00-14.15 CET (Poland, Belgium, Spain)
14.00-15.15 CET+1 (Finland)

PROGRAM:

WELCOME

HOW CARE RESPONSIBILITIES AFFECT THE WORKING LIFE OF WOMEN

Leticia López – Acción contra el Hambre

- The assumption of care and the employability of women. Consequences of COVID.
- The challenge of co-responsibility. Benefits of co-responsibility for both men and women. Analysis by age.

ACTIONS TO PROMOTE CO-RESPONSIBILITY AND IMPROVE WORKING LIFE

NEO Project

Bakea Alonso and Raquel Santos – CEPAIM

- Inclusion of a comprehensive gender perspective. Working with men for the transformation of masculinities. Case of unemployed men.
- Recommendations for entities that want to work with men and masculinities

COMMENTS AND DISCUSSION

The audience can ask questions and join the discussion.

REGISTER HERE: https://www.lyyti.in/co-responsibility_webinar

MORE INFORMATION

Kaija Villman

kaija.villman@xamk.fi, tel. +358 40 176 4667

The webinar is a part of the Time4Help Finland: Service Business, Women Entrepreneurs and Leaders project which is implemented by Xamk and co-financed by the European Social Fund and the South Savo Centre for Economic -Development, Transport and the Environment. The Time4Help project is implemented in an international collaboration with Dobre Kadry, Fundación Acción Contra and El Hambre and Odisee University College.

Leverage from the EU
2014–2020

Odisee
UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

Dobre Kadry
Centrum badawczo-akademyjne Sp. z o.o.

XAMK
South-Eastern Finland
University of Applied Sciences